J- "Love and War are the same thing and stratagems and policy are as allowable in the one as they are in the other." Miguel de Cervantes

Thanks for being there. Love, Heff

Joie- You made my SSRP something I will never forget!

Sonal, C.D., Smeth, RJM, Chris, Kathy and all my friends- I know I've been a challenge but you've handled it well. Thanks. Sometimes I get up in the morning just to see you guys (and of course to giggle).

Cranbrook/Kingswood- Thanks for giving me a place to be me.

Mom- I really believe we can do anything if we stick together. You've given me so much of yourself and I will carry it with me forever. Thanks . . . I love you.

Dad- It hasn't always been easy but here I am. Thanks. I love you too.

Mrs. Sirich- Thank-you so much for all your time, help and encouragement. You couldn't know what a difference you've made.

Mr. Hoffman- Whenever I think of Cranbrook I will think of you.

Nad- We've gone through it all . . . 1st day of 9th grade, Donny the Butler, Groves Talent show, me and You-Know-Who, you and Craig ?!! ?, Yassoo!, Woodward at 3 am, Do you always call the police when the paper is delivered? And it's all been great! I'll always be here . . . Luv ya

ALLIE SHON

Friendship is the comfort, the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person, having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but pouring all right out just as they are chaff and grain together, certain that a faithful, friendly hand will take and sift them, keep what is worth keeping, and with a breath of comfort, blow the rest away.-George Eliot

They're bouncy, bouncy, bouncy
and fun, fun, fun, fun, fun.
But the wondermost,
wonderful
thing about tiggers,
is that I'm the only one!

-A.A. Milne

Mr. Graesser, Mrs. Rencher,
Mr. Dagbovie, and Dr. Roth-

There are many people that we meet in our lives, but only a very few will make a lasting

Thank you for all your teachings, advice, and friendship. I will never forget you.

What happens to a dream
deferred?

Does it dry up
like a raisin in the sun?
Or fester like a sore-
And then run.
Does it stink like rotten meat?

Or crust and sugar over like a syrupy sweet.

Maybe it just sags
like a heavy load

Or does it explode?

-Langston Hughes

Mom and Dad: I'll never be able to thank you enough for all the love, care, advice, understanding, and support you've given me over the years. You have not only been my parents, but also my most trusted and constant friends. You have always been there for me in times of need, have never given up on me, and have always believed in me, and that is something I appreciate and value more than you could ever know. I love you.

Give me where to stand, and I will move the world.-Archimedes

John:-My dear own private, long-distance, telephone tutor! What would I ever do without you? (probably flunk). I know I wouldn't have made it through these past four years without your advice, support, concern, PATIENCE, and love. You are one of the most selfless people I know, and I consider myself very fortunate to have you as a brother. I love you. (Now don't you feel really guilty that you didn't leave me a quote? HA!)

The superior man is modest in his speech, but exceeds in his actions.-Confucious

Jin-Na: -Fashion queenie! Though we may argue with each other from time to time, and have our little spats every now and then, but don't think I don't love you, because I DO! You always manage to make everything seem a little bit more fun with your zany sense of humor. Thank you for all the good times and great memories. Know that I love you and will always have tremendous faith in you.

Susy: -My second sister. Words can't express how much you mean to me. You are always there to listen to me and talk to me whenever I need you. When no one else is there to help, there you are, without fail. You are truly my best friend in the world, and I don't know what I would have done without your friendship over the past seven years. Together we have shared many experiences and adventures, and because of you, I have enough good memories to last me the rest of my life. I LOVE YOU!!! Cheers to the Sesame Twins! May they always be together to wreak havoc!!!

Pooh-face: What would we do if it weren't for the telephone? ... Eggheads of the world unite!!! ... One fateful night in November of 1984 ... Tigger ... "icky" ... Ringo ... J.T. ... Bowie ... S.A., J.T., D.A., S.S., C.B., T.K., S.B., M.S., and I don't know who else! How did you put up with me through all that?!? Someday our Ruperts and Careys will come! In the meantime, think of Daisies, Oxford Blues, Lady Janes, Rooms with views, and Hearts of Fire. That should tide you over for a while, but if not, LET'S RUN AWAY TO ENGLAND111111 (and find them ourselves).

Jane: Who's next? If I had a tale I could tell you, I'd tell you a tale sure to make you smile.-John Denver

Sonal: I can see that Drivers' Ed has paid off for you! "Aren't you on the wrong side of the road?" "Let's go get some ice cream before French starts!" "I don't have fifth hour!" Thank you for all the crazy adventures, and laughs, and most of all, your wonderful friendship. I love you! (Can you believe we actually made it?)

Mom & Dad, I can never thank you enough for all of the opportunities and support you have given me. I love you more than you will ever know.

Heather, "Old friends, they mean much more to me than a new friend, they can see where you are, and they know where you've been."

Harry Chapin

Thanks for putting up with me the past few years. We finally made it. Sonal, "'You have been my friend,' replied Charlotte. 'That in itself is a tremendous thing . . . '"

E. B. White

I have always admired your unselfishness and concern for others. Thanks for sharing these things with me and thanks for being my friend.

Jeanette & Michelle, It hasn't always been easy, but I'm glad we finally became friends. I love you.

ANNE LYNN ARMBRUSTER

Mom: Things will probably come out all right, but sometimes it takes strong nerves just to watch.

You were everything a mom could be, even in the roughest times. Yes, even with those crazy dogs.

Dad: I'm not stupid you know. We both know we don't always get along but that is only because we are so alike. I will always be there to give you a hug.

Jane: Reach high, for stars lie hidden in your soul. Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal.

Pamela Vaull Starr

No one could ask for a stronger friendship than what we have.

Debi: Be yourself. No one can even tell you you're doing it wrong.

James Leo Herlihy

We shared some of the best times. They are never to be forgotten.

David: A man wrapped up in himself makes a very small package.

Try to keep this in mind when you make varsity hockey.

ELISABETH JANE SHETTEL

Mom & Dad: Isn't it the job of parents to teach their kids how to do it on their own when they're ready? Thank you for everything, even though I may not have always seemed grateful. I love you.

Frances, Sally, Jim, & Don: Bartles & Jaymes say it best: "Thank you for your support."

The Bandemers: My second family - thank you. By the way, I still owe you a couch.

Anne: I can't believe it's been 7 years. Put together we've been through it all. Maybe sometime when we stop trying to succeed we'll really have some fun. The memories are endless - you know how much our friendship means to me. Thanks for being there. "The past is never dead - it is not even past."
William Faulkner

Debi: "You gotta be pushy in this world or you'll never get anywhere." Hmmm, who said that? Thanks for pushing and pulling me around, oh yeah, can't forget the driving, too! You're the best time-waster I know. You trained me.

Julie: Remember, it's always just the beginning, and never the end! Give up today for tomorrow's memories. Now if I took my own advice, I'd never be depressed, right?

Susie & Jess: Distance means nothing! You're that much closer to my heart.

Jenn & Anj: Thanks for caring. The talks helped more than you know. When's the Wilderness Reunion?

David: Weakling! You're the little brother I never had. Remember you begged us to hog-tie you and lock you in the closet! Believe me, you'll be a star before you know it, so don't give up yet. Have a blast!

Mr. Graesser, Mr. Hoffman, Doc, Miss Rutzen: Thank you

Mr. Solomon: I can't thank you enough for pulling me through this year. I don't know what I would have done without our talks. Your encouragement, optimism, faith in me, and craziness helped me more than you will ever know. Our friendship means a lot to me.

Softball!!! To everyone else: you aren't forgotten! If you don't live for hockey, what are you living for? CRANBROOK HOCKEY IS #1!
No one said it would be easy, but we made it interesting, and survived to tell about it!
THANKS, CRANBROOK!

DEBORAH JEAN WHITE

Jane: For putting up with me, accepting me for who (or is that what?) I am, and not trying to change me, thanx. Sue: Wow! That's the term that comes to mind when I think of all we have done together. Does the word "Brookdale" provoke any memories? . . .

Rob: One day maybe I'll figure out how two people can be siblings without having the same parents.

Mike: I think I've learned more from you than anybody else. I know it's just words, but stay special, I mean it.

Becky, Ali, and Jenn: Do you have any idea how frustrating it is to have 3 friends who always seem to know more about me than myself? Thank you for helping me to "see the light" in many situations, and guiding me to the right decision.

Topher: So maybe we are crazy, but we have a great time . . . C.R. (I liked how you put it)

Anne: You are a wild woman, girl. Keep it up.

Melissa: 13 years now. Sit back, remember, and smile.

Jules: I'm glad someone else can screw up ready-made brownies

Jessica: Thank you for your understanding, help and advice.

JENNIFER SANDOVAL

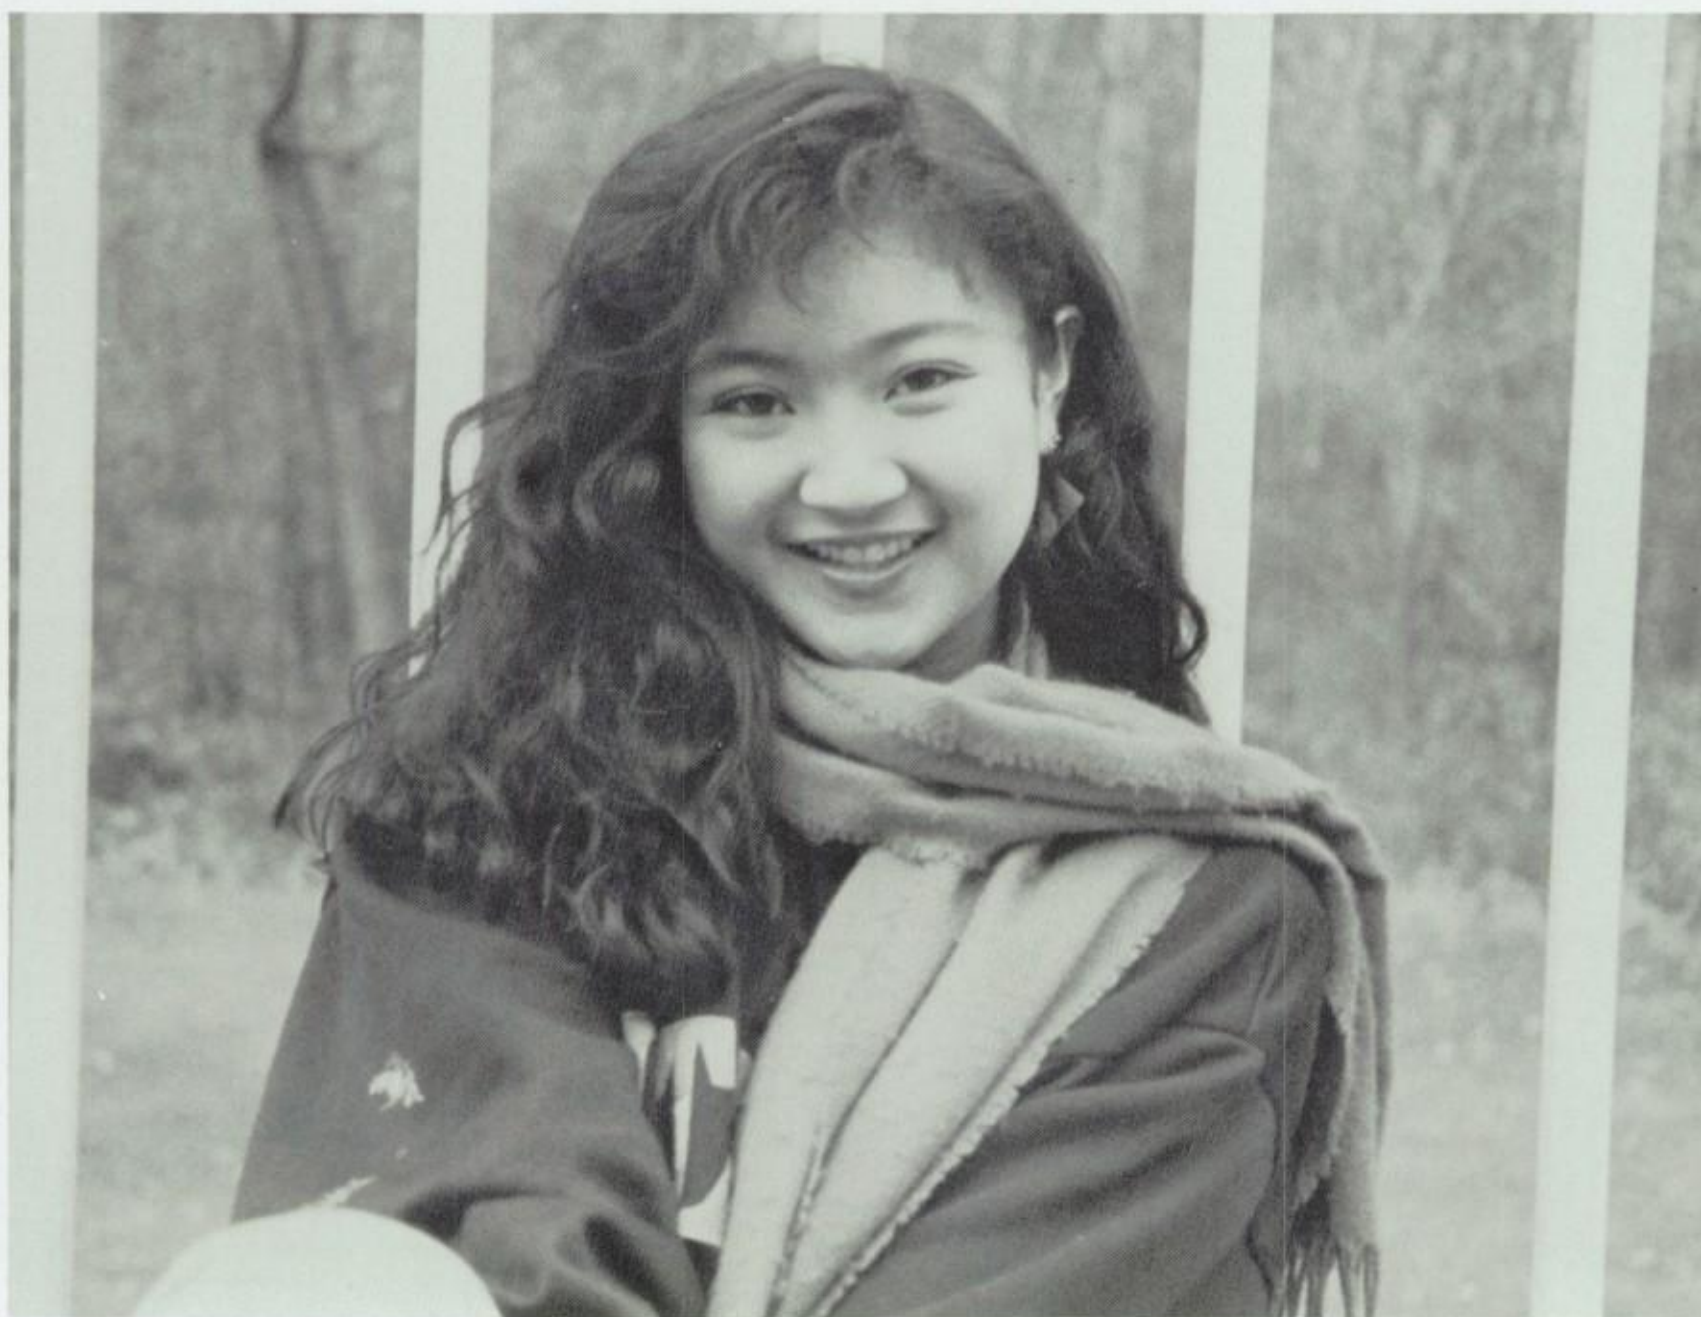

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

— Kahlil Gibran

To the world that we knew.
— Echo & The Bunnymen
I will miss you!!

Susie-
You have been much more to me than just a teacher or advisor, you have been a friend.

Filippo-
Now I understand these winds and tides
The change of time won't drag you away.
We run like a river, on like the sea . . .

I love you, I love you, I love you.

Jen-fer-
Remember C&C runs, henny penny and turkey
lurkey, Mo-bay, COGJOB, surpemes, moustaches, Baby Jake and all our queer notes. No matter how far apart we become, I will always remember you as the one that made Cranbrook so special. Thank you for being such a wonderful friend. Farewell my friend, I'm off to Camelot . . . I love you.

ALEXANDRA DAWN KALAYDJIAN

Dad- I promise to never leave you alone if you promise to never leave me alone. I wish that I could express in words how grateful I am for all that you have given me. I love you.

Mom- "If I could, through myself, set your spirit free, I'd leave my heart away, see you break, break away into the light."- U2 Contrary to what you may think, you have been the best mom I could have ever wished for. I love you.

Mandy and Adam-
"Forever walking upon these shores betwixt the sand and the foam.
The high tide will erase your footprints and the wind will blow away the foam.
But the sea and the shore will remain
Forever."-Kahlil Gibran
Love always, your grandma

Kathy- There will always be a place in my heart for you. Thanks for everything

Del, Mr. Ladd, Mr. Martin, Mrs. Robinson, Mr. Graesser and Nort-Thanks for all your help and inspiration.

Becky-
"While I live, I will follow you if you'll follow me
All the days and nights there we know we'll be
I will stay with you if you'll stay with me
Just one single tear in each passing year."- Follow you, Follow me
Genesis
It's not goodbye. I love you

Jenny-
"Oh baby, baby it's a wild world
And it's hard to get by just upon a smile."-Cat Stevens
With each time that I turn to you and you are there, I realize a little more what a wonderful friend you are. I don't know what I would have done without you.

Dayna-I voted for your book instead of my own years ago, and since then you have repaid me with many hours that you have spent listening and helping me. And what about the lonely times at Embers, and the embarrassing ones on the slopes, or your empty refrigerator. People who don't know you don't know what they are missing.

Debbie- Remember, Becky and I are always right. Thanks for always being there even though I don't understand you, I still love you.

Nicole-Whenever I feel that there is nobody to care, I remember you.

Toni-You are one of the most beautiful people I have ever met. When you go far away to achieve all the great things you say you are, remember that I'll be here, forever your little Al.

Chris-I'm sorry for so many things, for hurting you, for letting you down, but most of all sorry that we were never together.

Julie, Eva, Steve, Sunj, Iv, Mike J., Jen, and Dwight- "There we were all in one place, a generation lost in space, with no time left to start again."-Don McLain With you guys, I've had the best times of my life.

SYLKE HABERMAN

Mom, Dad, Anke -

Love doesn't make the world go 'round.
Love is what makes the ride worth while.

F. P. Jones

Thank's for the ticket and making the ups and downs just a little bit easier to handle.

I love you mom, dad and little sis!

Kevin - I love you, not only for what you are;
But for what I am, when I am with you.

R. Croft

I love you "Big Brother"! Never forget Oct. 12, 1997.

No one smiled at me today.

I guess they know
He's gone.

Merrit Malloy

I'm gonna miss you!

Gwen - Yet we walk the pathway

Side by side;

Where so many others,
Lived and died.

R. Waterman

You'll never know how much you helped me, just by being there this year.

I luv ya!

Maggie - And looking back along the past,

We know we needed all the strain
Of fear and doubt and strife and pain
To make us value peace at last.

E. W. Wilcox

It's been a long, rough year, but now it's over.
Maggs, life is uphill from here. I wuv you!

Sheila - What is a friend?

A single soul dwelling in two bodies.

Aristotle

Now you know why we are inseperable.

"Red rules"! I luv ya!

Michael - There is a child somewhere

Lost in earth

Or time.

He was mine.

Merrit Malloy

I miss you! "Olive Juice!"

To the Madrigals - Thank you for an experience I'll never forget.

Here we are at the 'end'!

... But

It isn't over.

Poof! I'm glad the two years and the miles haven't completely separated us. Santa's helpers rule above all else!

C.R. - I'm so glad that we decided to be suite-mates. You are so special to me, and I'll never forget our late nights doing homework, typing papers that aren't due yet, and doging the guard to go get our laundry at 2:00 a.m.! (hee hee) Whenever you're sick during the middle of the night, feel free to call me and I'll be there for you! I love ya! P.S. What have you been doing in that tent?!

K.W. - I love how you are always so honest and frank with me. You always told me the truth and even if it hurt I knew you were right and I probably never spoke of it, but I silently thanked you for being true with me. I hope in the future we will still be able to be as close friends - You know my writing habits, but you only live 15 minutes away from me! I love you!!

Mom & Dad - I know I've made many mistakes, and in time you always gave me another chance. I don't know what I'd have done if you had given me the second chance almost 11 years ago, and now again at the beginning of this year. Thanks for putting up with me and always giving me that second chance. I LOVE YOU BOTH!!

... and cherish the memories we have, until we are together again to make more memories.

Sincerely,

Joy Marisa Reimer

To all my other friends: I'm sorry you're not mentioned, you all know who you are. I just don't have enough room on this page for everyone. I love you all though and thanks for making C.K.S. so special for me. A.T., S & C.R., D.W., J.S., R.D., E & J.M., N.F., M.K.S.A., M.D., T.R., S.B., B.M., P.S., T.G., T.P., A.S., S.B., S.H., D.G., H.W., J.G., And anyone else I might have forgotten about!!

COLLEEN MARIE RICHARDS

All of my family: You seem to understand me better than I could ever understand myself. You were always there for me; you accepted phone calls on the weekends when I got bored, you answered all of those 20-page letters, and gave me advice and support when I needed it. Thank you for understanding what I was experiencing. I love every one of you very much.

Mom and Dad: There aren't any words that I could ever write that would express how much you mean to me. You stuck by me when I decided to come here and continued to be there through all the tough times. I truly appreciate all you've ever done for me. I LOVE YOU!! PS-Could you imagine the phone bill if we lived out of state?

Cindy: I love you, even if I don't show it all the time.

All my other sisters: You ran off and got married. I'm happy; not only did I inherit 3 brother-in-laws, 2 nieces, and a nephew out of the deal, but I finally got my own room. HA! Love Ya!

Kelly and Carol: Two of the greatest friends a person could ever have. I'm glad that the distance between us could not separate us. I love both of you very much.

Mr. Snyder and the HUB family: You are an important factor in why I am here today. You have opened so many doors for me. I owe you so much. It's amazing how much people really care. Thank you so much.

Pastor and Donna: You are really special. Whenever there seemed to be no hope, you made the impossible possible. It was nice to know somebody who had already been through campus life. Thanks for always being there. PS-Go aardvarks!?

Mr. Shaw, Mrs. Riegle, Mr. Ladd, Mr. Dagbovie, J.S., J.R., T.R., L.R., Mr. R., L.B., D.C., H.W., P.W., A.T., etc . . .

I'm glad you gave me the opportunity to get to know you. Each one of you is special and I'll never forget all that you've done for me. Thanks a million.

M and D, I look at you and know me better, for what I am is made of you. I would never want parents any different from you. I LOVE YOU!!!

Brian and Mike, Not only are you my brothers, you're my friends. That's what matters. I LOVE YOU BOTH.

Nicole, A part of me is made of you and could never be taken away. You know me better than I know myself. You laugh at me when I do the dumb things I do and never hesitate to yell at me when I'm wrong. Whenever I want to cry, you always make me laugh. I love you so much, What would I do without you???

JODY LYN PODOLSKY

For the sake of amusement, let us investigate a purely hypothetical situation. Let us pretend that the Frosty road we all learned about diverges into a 1,000 paths and each one of my Cranbrook Cohorts selects a different course to tread. A delightfully progressive concept! But as intellectually sweet as that may taste, my heart still sinks to a precarious level as my memory switches on and suddenly I'm watching a mental movie of images of the Past superimposed on my friends' backs as they meander into the Future, alone. Should this separation occur (though it rarely does) there are some things some people must know. Not necessarily for today, but for that potential point in time, when the backs of those familiar bodies completely dissolve, and all I'm left with is the way we were.

JENNIFER: How wonderful it is that we've actually made progress! The fights that used to be executed thru pillows and shaving cream then polyp-causing verbal wars has finally matured to require a simple, unique understanding. I do not share that subliminal strength with anyone else, June, and believe me, you are not going unappreciated. Listen to Boz. It's a promise . . .

BETH: You can Walk Under Ladders all you want, bNH, your life is charmed and it's a pleasure being a part of it! Your energy and alacrity is brilliant and I respect so much that you can do whatever you want to do, and never have it be at anyone else's expense. If the career goals never materialize, we can always drive a taxi together. I adore you, Bin . . .

EJW: "Why have the wings unless you're meant to fly? And tell me please, why have a mind if not to Question Why?" (A.&M. Bergman, Yentl) So, Barb's to blame for the madness. That passionate belief went straight to my heart. But even more significantly, Elizabeth, So Did You. In keeping with the ritual of the past three years, when you start to walk on that path that I mentioned above, don't be too surprised if you find me behind you . . .

juliemay, ap, ep, mk, wood, melbs & gab: "Now dammit, look here, all of you, we all must admit that everything is fine and there's no need in the world to worry, and in fact we should realize what it would mean to us to understand that we're not really worried about anything." (Kerouac, On The Road) . . . Thanx for the laughter.

M&D: "We dreamers have our ways of facing rainy days, and somehow we survive . . ." (Barry Manilow) There was a time during my hectic high school career that you thought my head was so far up in the clouds, I could have gotten a job directing traffic for the Jetson's. Child's Frequent Flyer Brain causes parental concern. That's nothing new. But how lucky I am to have parents who did not brush aside my "phase" nor attempt to suppress it. Your perennial support gave me fuel for my flights and a loving place to land. I think you two should write the handbook on parenting . . .

Franci, Mindy & Corey: It's obvious Mom and Dad did not put us all in the same genes. We're foils and reflections of one another. But had we all been baggy or pleated, tapered or wide, the house would have been a lot quieter. I learned so much from the noise . . .

Corey: If you ever need me, dial 540-6100. They'll have my college address. Take care of mom and dad, o.k?

Ms. Streisand: One day I was skimming through some old journals and I noticed that you were first mentioned in February, 1985. The sentence reads: "I am dying to meet Barbra Streisand." Fascinating. Do you think in twenty years people will speculate that I had some weird Freudian urge to throw you between two buns?! My spelling has always been regressive, but the wish has remained a constant. Since ninth grade I have been fanatically fixated, undeviatingly devoted. It's time to communicate, Barb. . . . Or I'm gonna go Nuts.

Dr. Cowie and Mr. Shaw: "He said, 'Bill, I believe this is killing me,' as the smile ran away from his face. 'Cause I'm sure that I could be a movie star if I could get out of this place . . .'" (Billy Joel) O.k., o.k., maybe I am a little anxious to cut loose, but not without having the opportunity to thank you, gentlemen. Your love of what you know — and curiosity to seek out what you don't know yet — has inspired me a great deal. Will I ever catch up?

JENNIFER AMY ROTHENBERG

It seems to me a crime that we should age
These fragile times should never slip us by
At time you never count a shout of rage
As friends together watch their childhood fly . . .

-Elton John

M.R.K: In a way you remind me of myself.

The way we think, how you understand me so well
Our friendship means a lot to me.

M.H.W: My dependent, my crutch
Do you think we were put here just to frustrate each other?
That's probably why we get along so well.

Aaron & David: I'm aware of everything you've done for me.

Thank you . . . I love you.

M.F.W: I just wanted you to know that you are on my mind.

Mrs. Sayers: You're the best adviser I've ever had-thank for everything.

Mr. Robinson: When your grandchildren want my autograph (don't forget I'm going to be a famous rock star, movie star, etc.) they can have it for free of charge and that's a promise.

D.C.R: I don't know where to start with you . . . We've gone from one extreme to the other. I'm just glad our friendship remains.

E.L.P: You know me so well and you love me anyway
I think that's great.

J.A.R: Why is your advice always so right?
Thank for always caring about me.

SARAH J. WOODWORTH

Mom and Dad-

I will always appreciate how supportive and confident you've been in me. Thanks. I love you both.

Rick-

Even though you're not here to help me, your advice has helped me more than you'll know. Thanks I love you.

Del-

If it doesn't show sometimes how much I value your tolerance, understanding, and friendship . . . I DO!

To my friends-

We finally made it! Thanks and good-luck to all of you.

Susie Symons and Ms. Rutzen-

You both made school and life at school much more enjoyable.

Thank You!

A.P.-

We've been through it all, and I'm glad I had you to do it with! THANKS!

ANDREA PARTRICH

Mom and Dad- You've been the best parents any daughter could ever ask for. I love you.

To Ross- Even though . . . I love you!

Sarah- Too much has been said and done to put in words. I could have never made it without you. I love you.

Michael- Our friendship will continue growing. Thanks for being there for me.

To Del- You've been a terrific friend and at the same time a helpful adviser. Thanks.

To Erin- "Friendship like china is precious and rare if broken. It can be mended but the cracks are still there." Arthur Eddy

LIZZIE BEITNER

Mom and Dad- "I love you equal." Thank you for everything.

Katie - I'm sorry for punching you in the nose ten years ago, please forgive me.

Mimi - Thank you for not being the typical older sister.

Baby Bear - I LOVE YOU, I LOVE YOU, I LOVE YOU.

Chris- "Wouldn't it be nice if we were older and we wouldn't have to wait so long. Wouldn't it be nice to live together in the kind of world where we belong. Maybe if we think and wish and hope and pray it might come true. Maybe then there wouldn't be a single thing that we couldn't do and we could get married and then we'd be happy." - Beach Boys

Lisa - Coney Island, Earth Science and sailboats, Cosmic candy, 3:00 pow wow, burritos, Reds, Western? You were my first friend here and my best friend here. Thank you for everything I love you.

Ilana- You are one of the greatest people I've ever met. Whenever we're together I can't help but laugh.

Julie- No matter how far apart we are, and no matter how little we talk, I know we'll always be friends.

LISA PEREIRA

Mom- No doubt we've had some rough times. I don't know what happened but I think I might be beginning to understand you. No matter what, just remember I really do love you.

Dad- Am I the only girl who doesn't want to go away to college because she's going to miss her daddy. Just wait - I'm gonna make you so proud of me. Thanks for everything. I LOVE YOU.

David- Hang loose, but not too loose because it all catches up with you in the end. I love you.

Lizzie- I never met a person I could trust more. You were the one person always there.

Tiff- Just tell me what I would have done if you never came!

"Those crazy nights I do remember, In my youth. I do recall those were the best days most of all."

-Journey-

Craig- Florida, Andover, late night calls, Secret Lovers, Mandolin Rain, July 4, haunted house, arts and crafts, lobsters, cards, ectoplasm, Crazy For You, and Ibids. How can I write what you mean to me in this little space? I guess I could start with three words . . . I Love You.

Julie, Nicole, Nicole, and Pam- Prince, Reckless, Petes Party Palace and pole, bowling, Big Boy, Pam Polnecheck, pop-corn and Breakfast Club, Sarmad and Mahair, The wall, Hardbodies. We did it!!

Jon, Josh, and Aaron- You guys are what made it all so fun.

Ian- You always managed to be there for me and keep my smile turned up.

Brad- Thanks for always helping me forget my problems, even if for just 10 minutes. Do me a favor and reread your yearbook.

The memories of yesterday will last a life time. We'll take the best, forget the rest.

MICHELLE KRASS

J.M. — Though we have had our ups and downs, the good times have definitely overridden the bad. I think that we are smart enough to keep that knowledge in mind. Besides, what would I do without the influence of your overly-upright qualities, and you without my overly-relaxed qualities?! I think we would be lost!

J.A.B. — "Only what I have lost is what I possess forever." — R. Rachel

There is much more that I would like to say, but not even an infinite amount of words could express all of my thoughts.

J.C.B., M.W., L.J. — Please remember that no matter how much time goes by,

"I am always here to understand you, to laugh with you, to cry with you, and to talk to you." — S. Shutz

You will always be my friends.

"A time it was and what a time it was. A time of innocence, a time of confidences. Long ago it must be . . . Preserve your memories, they're all that's left you." — Simon and Garfunkel

MOM & DAD — The bond I share with you can not be replaced with any relationship I will ever experience. Although I may not be able to express my love and gratitude towards you in words or actions, I think you realize how strong it really is.

HOWARD & JENNIFER — "Miles will separate us, memories will bind us. We will be apart but we will always be together." -Anonymous

Although this has been said, you truly are more than siblings to me; you are my best and most insightful friends. I love you.

A.J.B. — "It's hard sometimes when people are changing their lives, to understand each other, or even to talk . . . If you ever need a caring heart, or someone to listen to your deepest dreams or concerns, I will be there for you . . ." — M. Joye

Keep in mind that what we have between ourselves is very unique, and above all else . . . that I love you.

E.P. — "I enjoy the way we balance each other out, how we share the good times and support each other through the tears . . ." - A. Tawney

I don't think that I will ever be without the ideas and thoughts with which you have influenced me. You are truly a special friend.

JULIA CAROLE BENJAMIN

Mom and Dad- I know I've been difficult at times, and you've always dealt with me pretty well. Now it's time for me to go out on my own, and it's going to be difficult, and I'm going to deal with it pretty well too (I hope).
I love you.

Nicholas- "There's so much I want to say, but the right words just don't come my way." - Carole King
I love you.

Aaron, Jill, John, Josh, Lisa, Michelle, Nicholas, Nicole B., Nicole G., and Pam- It's going to be hard to say goodbye to people I love so much. Promise that we'll never forget each other and the times that we've spent together.

A friend is someone who knows everything about you and loves you just the same. - Unknown

THE MERRY-GO-ROUND

The merry-go-round
whirls round and round
in a giant circle on the ground.
And the horses run

To My Friends,

I think I can't decide what words to write because I don't want to go. I'm excited to move on but I'm sad to leave you. I hope you know how much I love you. I know the times we've shared will stay with us all our lives. I'll miss you.

To My Family,

In the corniest way possible, I'd like to thank you for all you've given me, for helping me when I needed you, for loving me, and for letting me love you.

Luke,
You are my best buddy. I know that we will always keep in touch. And no matter how many other friends I make you will always be the best.

Raboo,
I know that sometimes we fight but remember I will always love you and do not hesitate to tell me anything. Blood runs thick in the McEwen family.

Mommy and Daddy,
I owe you everything. My physical life and the stable upbringing and love you gave me. You did a darn good job. Just look at me.

Misty, Lizzie, Blair, and all my other friends at Cranbrook Kingswood —
Thanks for being friends.

Giggle Denise.

NICOLE BEHAYLO

Mom and Dad-
Thank you for all the opportunities, experiences, and support. Nothing could ever replace them. I love you both very much, though I may not express it enough.

Joe, Michelle, and Denise-
You're all great people besides being a great part of our(?) family. I love you all.

J.B., L.P., P.R., J.M., J.B., N.S., J.G., N.G., and A.K.-
I don't have a way with words, probably because I'm lazy. But thanks for everything, which is tons!

Aaron-

I don't have eyes to look into the future with, but I hope things will work out for the best. I love you, I'm pretty sure.

To all-

"I didn't understand it before, but getting off your butt and actually doing something for yourself is important for all of us. And though I can't say I won't miss you like hell, and won't worry about you often, I can say that what you are doing is great and I love you for it. It's important that we leave each other and the comfort of it, and circle away, even though it's hard sometimes, so that we can come back and swap information about what we've learnt even if what we do changes us and we risk not recognizing each other when we return."

PAMELA LYNNE RUSSMAN

Mom and Dad:

I thank you for the love, guidance, and support you have given me over the years. You have been the stability in my life, and you were always there when I needed you. I appreciate your personal sacrifices and respect all the decisions you have made. You have given me everything and still leave open a world of opportunities. Thank You. I LOVE YOU!

Steve, Laurie, Matt, Andy (LA (SLMAP):

Despite living in your shadows, I still managed to develop into my own individual and distinct person. You are all important to me and my closest friends. You have always been there for me, regardless, whether to teach me how to tie my shoes, sing the national, or fill out a college application. Thank you for your advice and support, and caring about your spoiled "baby" sister. I love you all.

Ginger: I love you too!

To My Friends:

I want to thank you for the four years of friendship. You have left me with lasting memories of the time we spent together. I cared about you and loved you all through the good times, and even the bad times. I thank you for being there for me. I couldn't have made it without you. I love you all!

HITTY BRIDGMAN

Hitty Bridgman
opposite: Jenny Murcko

While riding on a train going west
I fell asleep for to take my rest
I dreamed a dream that made me sad concerning myself and the first few friends I had.
The captains eyes are staring in the room where my friends and I spend many an afternoon.
where we together weathered many a storm laughing and singing till the early hours of the morn.
By the old wooden stove where our hats were hung our words were told and our songs were sung.
We longed for nothing and were satisfied talking and joking about the world outside.
With haunted hearts through the heat and cold
we never thought we could get very old.
We thought we could sit forever in fun
though our chances really were a million to one.
As easy as it was to tell black from white it was all that easy to tell wrong from right.
Our choices were few and the thought never hit that the one road we traveled would ever shatter and split.
Now many a year has passed and gone-many a gamble has been lost and won,
and many a road taken by many a first friend and each one of them, I'll never see again.
I wish, I wish, I wish in vain
that we could sit sadly in that room once again,
Ten thousand dollars at the drop of a hat
I'd give it all gladly if our lives could be like that.

with time to talk and to confide,
if you need me please believe,
I'm by your side."

-Squeeze

Thanks for all the great memories and fun times. Don't forget; The Alcove, Soft Cell, making tapes of New Order, The Cure,
Everything But The Girl, Love and Rockets, etc. "Deanna, I think we're on the same wave length!" Staying up all night and going out to Marine City. "What were you like?!"
There are so many more things I could say,
but not enough space —
thanks for everything!

Kabir: "Take your time, think a lot, think of everything you've got, 'cause you will still be here tomorrow, but your dreams may not." -
Cat Stevens

Cara: "A friend never gets in your way, unless you happen to be on your way down." -Anon

Alicia: "Miles will separate us, memories will bind us.
We will be apart, but we will be together."
-George Betts

Marianne: "You have been my friend. That in itself is a tremendous thing."
-E.B. White

Matt: "Some people come into our lives and quickly go, some stay for awhile and leave footprints in our hearts, and we are never the same."

Thanks for all your caring and understanding, and remember, I will call you in twenty years after you've become rich and famous.

Jim: "Some music moves you,
some music makes you move!"
-Belouis Some

Thanks for being a great brother and a true friend.
I know that you are always trying to help me straighten out my life, so if I ever need someone to talk to, I'll call you (collect).
I love you.

Mom and Dad: You two are very special to me, you'll never really know how much I appreciate everything that you have done for me.
I love you.

Marston: Even though, sometimes it may appear that I don't love you,
I really do.

Hold fast to dreams. For if dreams die,
Life is a broken winged bird that Cannot fly.-Unknown

Mom,-You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.-Kahlil Gibran. I truly appreciate everything you have done for me. Always remember that I love you.

Hank-You have given more love in 7 years than most people can give in a lifetime. Thanks for being a 'buddy.' I love you.

Dad, Dale, Sean, and Chris-Although I don't show it as often as I should, I love you all very much. Thanks for not giving up on me.

Brian-Sometimes I wish we didn't have to grow up. I really lucked out having a big brother like you. You're irreplaceable and I love you. Oh, and about senior year-it was fun.

I want to go back and do it all over again, but I can't go back, I know.-Eddie Money.

The good-byes make the journey harder still.-
Cat Stevens.

Krista-Whenever I see your smiling face, I have to smile myself because I love you.-James Taylor. Thanks for always being there whenever I needed a friend. Let's stay in touch, okay?

Joie-A friend is someone who understands and cares about you. A friend is someone you respect. A friend is you.-Susan P. Schultz. How will I ever get along without the Poster Child?!
The last two years have been the best. Thanks for putting up with me. I love you!

Dylan-He was there at the right time with the right smile. Just a shoulder to lean on, someone who'll tell you it'll all work out alright.-Phil Collins. Thanks for being that special person. I love you.

Lisa-Good-bye doesn't mean you'll be forgotten. It means you'll be missed.-H. Home. Grow up most!

Debi, Jane, Anne, and Jess-To my other sisters

you're doing it wrong.-James Leo Herlihy

Life is life.-Opus.

Guys!-Yo baby. Yo baby. Yo baby. Yo!

Grandma and Grandpa-Your kindness, generosity, and love will never be forgotten. I love you both very much.

Aunt Donna-You came and you gave without takin'. -Barry Manilow. Love ya!

Uncle Jerry and Aunt Mary-I've always looked up to you guys. Thanks for everything. I love you!

To everyone at BGCSM-Without you guys,
I wouldn't be where I am today. Thanks!

Susie-Miles will separate us, memories will bind us, we will be apart, but we will be together.- George Betts. The times we shared will remain in my heart always. I'm so glad to say that we've grown to be like sisters, and we both know that it ain't over yet! I've never really meant this more than now ... I love you.

No man is the whole of himself; his friends are

THE UNBEARABLE LIGHTNESS

The Typical Weekend:

Friday night- movie and Dominoes
Saturday night- Home and Dominos
Sunday night- The New York Times and Dominoes.

... Am I missing out on something?
Jody Podolsky

In Twenty Years:

Ali Kalaydjian will be married to "Whitted" who finally realized his true love for her.

Jenny Sandoval and Becky Vesely

I will be teaching African Pygmyes aerobics in the wilds of Africa.

Lauren Jacobs

Sarah Aptowitz will be following the clues I leave behind trying to locate me.

Tracey Ouvry

Looking for Tracey.

Sarah Aptowitz

Wherever Allie Shon will be, she'll be late. It'll take her twenty one years.

Monica Franklin

Least Capable of becoming a Chauffeur:

Nicole Behaylo doubles any speed limit and then goes ten miles an hour faster. Her car is covered in mud from racing through puddles, she's gotten pulled over for going 60 in a 25, and I've seen joggers flip her off.

Jill Mainster

Christy O'Neil- she's smashed too many cars!!!

Sarah Aptowitz

OF BEING . . . SENIORS!!!

Opposites Attract:

Trace Perkinson and Nicole Garratt

The Class of '88

What Is This Thing We All Call . . . "Life?"

It's that quality one loses when falling fifteen miles from a cave.

Eva Victoroff

Your Friend's Best Quality:

Eva Victoroff really understands this thing that we call life.

Tobey Nelson

Tobey Nelson is one of the same wavelength as me, the same astral plane.

Eva Victoroff

The Best and Worst Weekends:

After mid-terms, in honor of becoming second semester seniors, thirty close friends and myself drove up to Charleviox. You can imagine the rest . . .

Jennifer Rothenberg

The time three "couples" Lance and Laura, Becky and Mike, and Jennifer and Alex sat for hours in the Orchard Lake Country Club parking lot, doing Nothing!

Jennifer Sandoval

A Senior Quote I just forgot:

What I've just been through is nothing like where I'm going to.

Jill Mainster

Most Useful Study Habits:

I have none. I don't study.

Tobey Nelson

Most Embarrassing Moment In Class:

"Liz? Liz? Liz?"

In Mr. Robinson's first period Ethics class last year, we were discussing the subconscious (I think). I remember looking up from my textbook and I saw Erin Pitt and Jason Bean glaring at me. "What are you doing?" they asked. "Huh?" Three periods before my lunch hour and I was already out to lunch. Mr. Robinson had been calling my name for the last five minutes . . .

Lizzy Weiner

Where We'll Go For Lunch In The Year 2000: To Friar Tucks.

Sarah Aptowitz and Tracey Ouvry

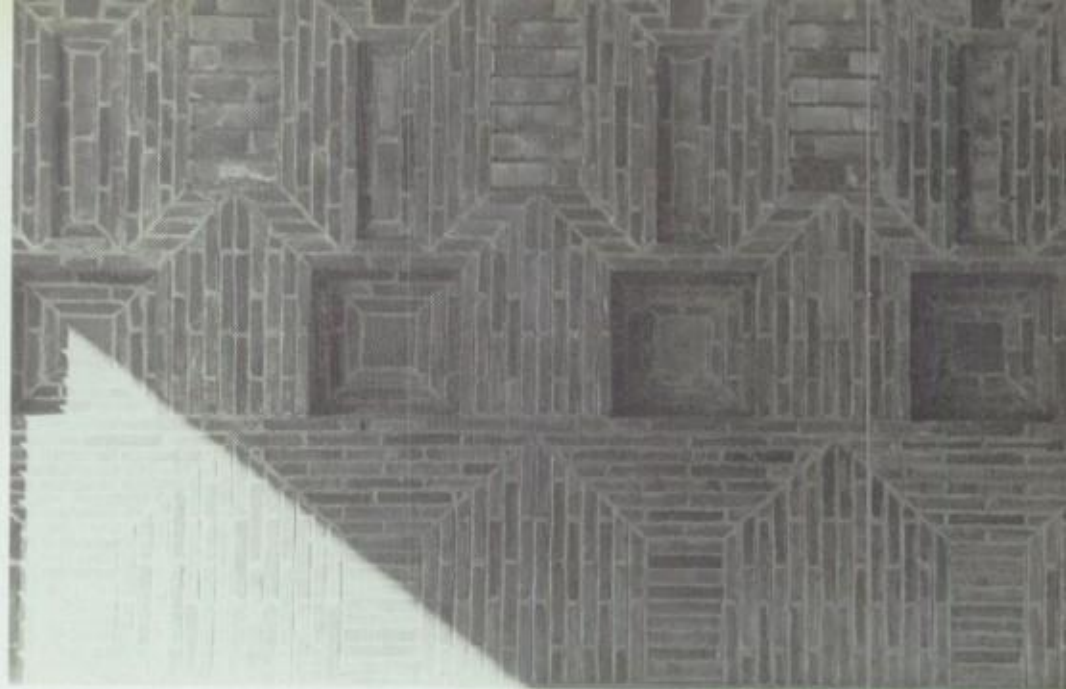

In the year 2000, I will be meeting Becky V. at Denny's for a C-C run, chatting about the time when we flew to Jamaica junior year and drank "Yellow Birds" and danced to Bob Marley with the "English Guys"

THE HEAVIER LIGHT ON BEING HUMAN

The Kingswood Yearbook staff would like to take this opportunity to thank Detroit Monthly magazine. In the February issue, Cathy Horyn's incisive article, "Rite of Passage," really got to the bottom of what it means to be a high school student who takes pride in her appearance. Adults are so often throwing their arms up in the air, speechless and befuddled, over what kids are really about. Alas, we have been discovered! Detroit Monthly went out on a limb, cut through the stale stereo-types of teenagers and revealed Truth: We are all ridiculously frivolous, money-munching prima donnas. We spend our nights dreaming about Mark Keller, a Bloomingdales in Birmingham, an Armani line for kids. None of us have a care in the world, a concern to contemplate, a worry to contend with. Instead, we've got money. Oh! To think that we've been totally found out! How dreadfully embarrassing . . .

And was it not exceptional of the article to emphasize how easy it is for one to be cosmetically and fashionably articulate? To suggest that each one of us has the capability to walk out of our homes looking so attractive and coordinated? What a fete to nut-shell an entire age group like that! Horyn's article conveyed, most expertly, that if each one of us memorized Shakespeare or wrote concertos every single Saturday — no matter how expensive a hard cover collection of plays or a piano may be — that would be nothing worth publishing. But because a select few have a genuine concern for colors and fabrics . . . ah! there is the germ for substantial reporting. The Kingswood Yearbook earnestly hopes that conscientious teenage girls discount their passion for fashion and instead, look like dirty slobs who couldn't care less about their self-image. After all, ladies, it is so much safer to not be attractive. Then you're not a threat to anybody . . .

All year the Wasp has felt bad (not really) about making fun of the hockey players, so we asked a couple of them to write a blurb about us: Duh, WaSSP is duh moste unfuniest magazeen we never red.

It all started in the ghettos of Bloomfield Hills with a fish called Anglo and a handful of dirt. It ended with a fried fish and a fistful of money.

Day Two

Our first day of real hiking sucked! It started out w/Ivan's and Mark's "gourmet" b-fast — hot grapenuts and powdered milk — which Anjel threw up. Took us forever to break camp 'cuz Ravi couldn't get his #!#!*!@ gaiters on! Then, every few feet or so, the whole group would reach into Bill's pack and grab some gorp! Alg and Andy got really pissed at us 'cuz we were so slow. Seven river crossings today. Ravi fell in one and nearly got hypothermia! When he felt better, the whole group sat around the fire, drinking hot kool-aid and eating macaroni and cheese. Dominoes, WHERE ARE YOU!? Jane hogged the entire tarp so I was an icicle by the time we woke up! Only 8 more days to go . . . THANK GOD!

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Their record was 5-15, but they were in a transitional year with some new varsity talent adjusting. As their coach would put it, "There's a lot of potential." Though their record wasn't the best, the team nevertheless managed to keep up its positive spirit and have some fun. Especially: "Hey Tina — call the shot . . ." Brick!" — Tina R., "Come on, guys, let's do K with an I!" — Sonja S., "Hee . . . Haw" — Bino, "A little arch goes a long way." — Julie S., and finally, "Don't make a horse of yourself . . ." — Bridget S.

Practicing in the Kingwood gym every day after school, the 1987 JV Basketball Team worked especially hard this year. Using skill, energy, and most of all, teamwork, their record by the end of the season was very good considering that they had many new members in the group. They worked especially hard this year not only to win, but also to give their "crippled" yet determined coach, Mr. Bowdy, something to be proud of.

JV BASKETBALL

Cross Country

The famous Cranbrook Cross Country Team . . . where do they go? Whether it's leaves, rain, or snow that falls, you'll always see the Cross Country Team run by. At 3:45 near the PAC, you can catch a glimpse of them as they start their daily run — about 8 miles per day! At 4:00, you just might see them huffing and puffing down Lone Pine road as you pass by in your car. Captains Josh and Dan led the team this year with top-runner Ashley Wernher and one of their most improved runners, Mark Periard. Thanks to the endurance of the team and leadership of their coaches, the 1987 Cross Country Team had one of their most successful seasons.

Eric Baum, John Briskner, Dan Busch (captain), Jacob Citrin, Sam Chung, Andy Currie, Pete Donaldson, Tom Gratch, Mark Hansen, David Henning, Tom Knauer, Pat Koepele, Keith Kreag, Eddie Lee, Richard Lee, Don Muenk, Chris O'Brian, Ned Parker, Mark Periard, Chris Prescott, Pritham Reddy, Luis Shimmel, Jamie Wakelin, ASHLEY WERNHER. Missing: Bill Calver, Josh Greenwald (captain), Jacob Radcliff, John Shin, and Joel Wood. Coaches: Thomas DeCraene, Chris Martin, Greg Miller

Stressing rock climbing, caving, and hiking, the year's Lodestar Outing club went on four trips total, including one to Indiana for cave exploring. What will this bunch of Wilderness experts remember from this year? Well, what about Lisa's love for MUUUD?! Or the unforgettable Heat Miser?! Don't forget the trip just south of Hell with the evil cub scouts! The highlight of the year was when Brad and Doug conquered the mountain while rock climbing! This fun-loving, skillful group of people owe it all to the two mushroom fanatics, Kim White and Nort.

Jeff, Kirk, Zander, Nevin, Jim, Jules, Christine, Lise, Doug, Ali, Eva, Brad, Stuart, leaders: Kim and Nort, missing: George, Becky and Jennifer.

Led by their two captains Joan Straith and Anne Rewey, and their coach Mr. Clement, the Varsity Tennis Team had a successful season. Through all the long and strenuous games, the team knew that their hard work would pay off. And pay off it did! The Kingswood Varsity Tennis Team went to the regional Championship, followed by the state championship. Though they didn't win, they were runners-up in the tournament. Congrats for a job well done!

For its many accomplishments, this team is something to be proud of. The 1987 Tennis Team, consisting of 13 girls ranging from freshmen to seniors, finished their season UNDEFEATED for the second consecutive year. In addition, the team finished with first place in the JV Invitational. The cooperation, skill, and teamwork of the JV Tennis Team, according to captain Frances Lee, are the important factors that led to its successful season.

VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY

The Kingswood Varsity Field Hockey Team is filled with a group of energetic, fast-running girls who love the sport. Though this year was not one of their more successful years, the team was out there every day practicing hard and playing their best. The most exciting game of the season was one that they tied. This led to a stroke off, which led to sudden death, which finally led to a win, Way to go, girls!

Brooke Aldendifer, Whitney Bell, Kay Brophy, Jessica Chuang, Karen Gurr, Traci Grundland, Carrie Higbie, Tiffany Jerome, Joan Kussmaul, Donna Lax (captain), Tracy Logar, Judy Loveland, Cara Martin (captain), Ivy St. John, Allie Shon, Isobel Spence, Coach: H. Knight

The JV Field Hockey Team had a great season. Though they started off slowly, losing the first few games, instead of getting discouraged they picked themselves up and had an excellent record by the end. They are a bunch of talented, hard-working, and dedicated girls who deserve a hand!

Alexis Blizman, Jennifer Briggs, Heather George, Theresa Go, Brigitte Harms, Nancy Hedayet, Lisa Ho (captain), Tina Kang, Susan Loveland, Sarah McIntyre, Amy Polk, Sarah Schultz, Mira Seo, Jill Smethells, Tiffany Tracy, Abbie Wakelin. Coach: Ms. Kussmaul

The 1987-88 Kingswood Varsity Volleyball team had an outstanding season. Winning every game except two by the middle of winter, it earned a third place standing in the league. Though a few new members joined the group, the majority of the team consisted of returning players from last year with the help and constant encouragement of Coach Miller and Assistant Coach DeCraene.

With four returning JV players and a sizeable handful of extremely skilled sophomores, the Kingswood JV Volleyball Team had some exceptional talent this season. With Captains Susanna Briskin and Ellen Boomer and the guidance of Coach Bowdy (with TWO healthy ankles!), this group of dedicated girls earned a 6-0 record by the end of January. One thing is certain — Mr. Miller is sure to have quite a few good years ahead of him with this group of athletes to look forward to. Until then, Mr. Bowdy will gladly pride himself on having such a talented team.

Ellen Boomer (captain), Susanna Briskin (captain), Marla Davidson, Lisa Ho, Bradi Kretschmer, Frances Lee, Beth Madorsky, Shelley Price, Michelle Smith, Kelly Spence, Beth Vandam. Managers: Blair Beitner, Sue Gunderson, Rosanna Lee, Wendy Rosen, Rebecca Sexton. Coach: Mr. Bowdy

SWIM TEAM

"We work ours off so we can kick yours!" Walking into the steamy swim area, this 1987-88 Swim Team motto proves to be true. In the midst of the splashing, screaming, and smell of chlorine are the excellent divers, well-built swimmers, and supportive managers of the Cranbrook Kingswood Team. Not owning a pool, the devoted team practices at the nearby pool at Covington, where they cram as much practice into an hour as they are physically allowed. With only 5 hours of practice per week, one can only wonder how they can be so good. While letting your mind wander, think of how much better they'd be if they had as much practice as any of the teams that they compete against. But perhaps in the upcoming years, the silent prayers of the swimmers will be heard...

VARSITY SOFTBALL

What a year! This group of 13 hard-hitting, fast-running girls had quite a successful season. In fact, it was the best record and teamwork the Kingswood Varsity Softball Team has had in 14 years! With the help of the fun-loving, first-time Varsity Softball Coach Mr. Ladd and the leadership and skill of captains Rachel Diebboll and Jean Weaver, this 1987 team definitely hit it off!

Amanda Belkin, Rachel Diebboll (captain), Suzette Ramirez, Colleen Richards, Lisa Rubino, Tina Ruther, Jane Shettel, Julie Shensky, Michelle Smith, Kelly Spence, Monee Vollmer, Jean Weaver (captain), Missing: Lisa Hunter. Coach: Mr. Ladd

Sarah Aptowitz, Ellen Boomer, Jeanette Donlon, Abbey Harrington, Anita Khaneja, Bradi Kretschmer, Frances Lee, Merrill Zack. Coach: Mr. Snitz

The Kingswood JV Softball players are fast, spirited, spunky girls. They worked hard and played hard this season, determined to make the year even more successful than the year before. They had lots of fun in the sun but most of all, they worked together as a team and created a winning feeling!

JV SOFTBALL

1987 TRACK

How hard is it to have a winning Track Team with only about 10 runners Very Hard! But the 1987 Team did it with the encouraging help of coach Bruce Gorrill and Top-runners Karen Lutomski and Kathy Langhaug. Though the team didn't get a chance to win as many meets as they would have liked because there weren't enough runners, the 1987 Track Team still kept up its energy, endurance, and most of all, spirit. In these categories, the girls came out in first place!

Alys Cho, Jowonn Farrackland, Silke Haberman, Tiffany Jerome, Kathy Lanhaug, Karen Lutomski, Kathy Mester, Brigitte Smeltzer, Ashley Wernher. Coach: Mr. Gorrill

After a year without golf, the Kingswood girls managed to pull together quite a decent team. This 1987 team practiced hard every day at the Wabeek Golf Course. With Andrea Madorsky as their team captain, this bunch of dedicated golfers had a pretty successful season. Of course it wouldn't have been a real team without the guidance and support of Dr. Van Dam, the coach.

NEVER SATISFY THE HUNGER . . .

To Larry and Mo: Gosh, I hope the day will never come where we have to say good-bye. You two are the Best Friends in the whole world. Always remember our laughs. Shall I count? The moon, or is it the sun? K, my ankle hurts. R meet me at the P. Oh yeah, Ren, what about sitting in the bathroom at Hogan's . . . and our never ending joke about D.K. F and F. Always remember, if someone tells you not to do something, do it anyway. If people stare at you funny talk louder.

Anna: I'm glad I got to know you as well as I have. Every word you have spoken to me means a great deal, and I'll never forget it.

Mard: Good times babe! Always remember freshman year, helping you move in and watching you put on your make-up. I will always remember you.

J.C. and B.A: Good times, great laughs: Never forget MB — trying to back out. Jenn — never change. I love you just the way you are.

To all my friends and most importantly, AB, MF, MK, JC, RO, KG, JS, JS, BA, DW, BV, AK, AA: Thanks for always being there.

Oh yeah, RO and KG: Is it electric shock time? Driving between campuses — no, not us. "Everybody's changed, but I'm still the same." "I just want to tell you what I'm feeling . . . never say good-bye." "If you don't eat your pudding, how can you have any meat?" "Push it!" you got to pull it up, and push it in! "Duh-Duh-Duh-Dude." "Blow — pops, yeah, that's it." CM — Wilderness 1988 Forever Young.-Anj Steve B. — Always remember studying for Anatomy, the plate binge, the build-a-breakfast club and "the hair flip". I'm really gonna miss you! Thanks for being so terrific through it all.

Sunj, Bert, Mark S., Paru, Mark P., Mike J. — Thanks for being such great friends!!

Debi — Remember our Pilgrimages to Embers first hour, we had every class together! You are so confusing, but so adorable and a great friend. I will really miss your smiling face! I love you!!

F.M. — "Why are you so far away?" she said.

"Won't you ever know that I'm in love with you?"

That I'm in love with you." — The Cure

"Last thing I remember, I was running for the door; I had to find the passage back to the place I was before ..."

Anne Marxer — Good luck with everything and remember we're all descendents of Babar!

JOJo — Thank you for being my advisor and my friend.

To all my friends and teachers — Thanks for everything!

Lizzie Beitner

J-

Why are you like what you are? ... Never mind. Don't change.

Jo-d L:

I don't want to get too lugubrious of course, because neighbor, if I get into doing that, you'll probably start calling me constantly, begging me for plans, telling me what a riot I am, letting me read your journals, and eventually be comparing me to Barbra Streisand. Close Friend. Stay Gold.

You are funny and great. I'll love you always. ... Do you like this one better? It is nicer than the other one.

Jennifer- The little sister I never had, How ya dune? Tequilla! Mere words cannot describe how glad I am ... Sorry winners, Tauruses, Thanks so much for eighth hours, weekends, and always being there for me.

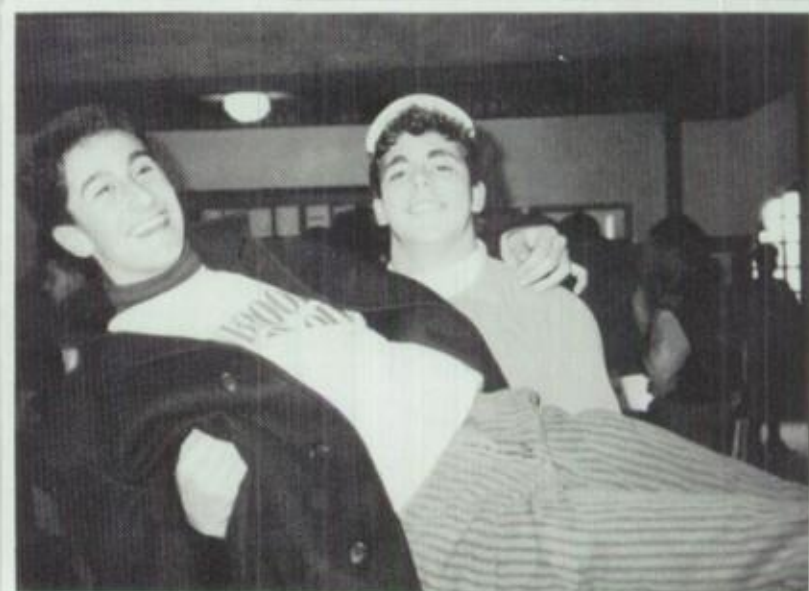

Ali- I really have to talk to you. Your greatest fantasy: all the items on a build-a-breakfast except grits. The summit, chewing hot chocolate, and of course our secret romance. Thanks a lot for always listening to my problems and letting me buy you numerous meals at mildly expensive restaurants.

Becky- Well ... so, how about that weather? Always in the middle ... Always driving. Trips to Denny's, OPA, Tequilla, and the "Hair Flip" Do you always talk that way? Always I do! Thanks, you've made this year a lot of fun. You will always have a special place in my heart.

Anne- Glad to know you, again. Your house was the savior of many a weekend. Project X for movie of the decade. Good luck. By the way you are without a doubt taller than six foot.

Anna- The one who takes the most insults, but truly, we do it out of love, a lot of love. Go Spartans, I mean Tigers, same difference. See you in a decade or two at your house with the white picket fence, the Golden Retriever, and two kids. Don't worry I'm sure I'll envy you.

To All-Thanks and good luck with all you do. Love, S.B.

Becky V. — Cog Job, Pardon my dust, the road trip to Kalamazoo College and Jackson prison, "Look what T.G. gave me!" Mo Bay, Yellow Birds, Supremes, Henny Penny and Turkey Lurkey, C-C runs at Denny's, "C'mom, Al, here girl!!" Is it M.S. or is it squared? Code name one word. "You're my best friend and I love you so well. I'll follow your dream, do you know what I mean?" I'll miss you so very much next year 'cuz a part of my will be leaving with you. I love you I love you I love you ... all is groovy ...

Farewell, my friend, I'm off to Camelot ...

Anjel, Debs, AB, LH, JS, LR:

"Pooh," said Christopher Robin earnestly, "if I ... if I'm not quite ..." he stopped and tried again.

"Pooh, whatever happens, you'll understand me, won't you?"

"Understand what?" said Pooh

"Oh nothing!" He laughed and jumped to his feet. "C'mon."

"Where?" said Pooh.

"Anywhere." said Christopher Robin.

I Bartos, being of sound mind and body, bequeath the following:

Gotno-The telephone books and elevator shoes that kept me as tall as him, $500 for all the food I scammed, and a century club plaque.

Stevie B.- $1000 for all the food, drink, gas, great advice and that amazing statue at the top of his stairs, and a large glossy picture of Margaret.

PeeWee- One house in Charlottesville (so his new friends can also profit from his generosity) any money he thinks I owe him, and a credit card phone number in case he wants to talk.

Ox- A lifetime supply of LaBatts, a gold medal in 1992 (unless the previous gift gets him in trouble again) and the number to AA.

Mikie- A decent car, a Michigan Rose Bowl bid his freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior years, and free tickets to Pasadena.

Anna- A car that has a working heater and STILL smells good, another pair of Beaners, and another cute, little Filipino to laugh at her jokes and listen to her problems.

Anne- A boyfriend as tall as her, some Filipino flesh for her dogs, and new windshield.

Jen- Five hundred pounds of rice, some NEW private jokes, something else for us to talk about besides love lives (aka. KK), and my name: ALBERTO SORONGON (FILIPINO! smack)

Ali- Her won direct phone line to SB, her own private booth at Denny's, and finally a chance to see Tony.

Becky-Always remember-You look like the Cosmo girl-Ranch Yes!No! our sing-a-longs- Angie and her stories-Just take a walk with him-running away from camp-she is sneaking-our blind date- Let's be more _____.The British are almost trash-the rice in the taco-the big rock-Juan!- I'm having an _____.I love you! I love ya,
Me

Robert-

I'll save the best for last. From chicken fighting at Rachel R's to studying for midterms, we've certainly had some fun times. You always mad me laugh even when the "Closed To Thru Traffic" sign hit me.

I love ya.

We the students of Cranbrook Kingswood would like to thank this fine institution for . . . We went thru 4 years of absolute . . . giving it $40,000 (not counting books and all its paraphenalia, cookies optional) all of which could have gone to cars, food, clothing, food, and condo in Barbados. We thank you the fine piece of paper w/the neat handwriting most of us got (except perhaps the hockey team) after our time in purgatory, which flew well considering it was so heavy. Love, the C-brook Educational Army . . . NO REALLY!!!

Congratulations

THE WRITE WORD

If you find the right gift a chore
And written words don't flow for you,
Let the "write words" from my pen pour,
To make a portrait fresh and new.
A character sketch I will create,
To mark whatever you celebrate.
So let my "Write Words" speak for you,
And convey portraits, Oh so true!

IN MEMORY OF
HENRY SCRIPPS
BOOTH
AUGUST 11, 1897 -
FEBRUARY 7, 1988

photo credit: Jack Kausch, 1987.

Henry Scripps Booth at Saint Dunstan's Chapel Christ Church Cranbrook.

Henry Scripps Booth, a major participant in the development of Cranbrook Educational Community for more than eighty years, passed away February 7, 1988, after a brief hospitalization. He was the last surviving child of George and Ellen Booth, the founders of Cranbrook.

"Harry" was born August 11, 1897 at his parents' home on Trumbull Avenue in Detroit, located opposite the stately mansion of his grandfather, James Scripps, the founder of the Detroit News. The Booths, with their five children, took up residence at Cranbrook in 1908. At the time, there were no nearby schools and Harry and his siblings had to be tutored at home. Farm buildings existed on the north shore of Kingswood lake, but those at the Cranbrook campus site had not yet been built.

Booth, in collaboration with Robert F. Swanson and on his own, was given the opportunity to design a number of Cranbrook buildings, including the sextonry at Christ Church Cranbrook, the two cottages on Cranbrook School campus, portions of Cranbrook School's academic units, and Brookside School's main building and headmistress' house. In addition, he designed his own home, Thornlea, and that of his sister, the late Florence Booth Beresford. Outside of Cranbrook, he concentrated principally on church buildings.

As a former executive director of the Cranbrook Foundation, trustee, and board member of the Academy and schools, Mr. Booth played an integral role in the programmatic development of most of the Cranbrook institutions. He was a founder of St. Dunstan's Guild, Cranbrook Music Guild, Cranbrook Writers' Guild, and Cranbrook House and Gardens Auxiliary, and had a direct hand in establishing many of Cranbrook's annual events, such as Founders' Day, the 12th Night Gala, and the Festival of Gifts at Christ Church. The author of several guidebooks to the Community, he had in recent years devoted himself to compiling a comprehensive history of Cranbrook. He was also an avid amateur watercolorist, playwright, poet, psalmist, and novelist, and signed all of his creative efforts under his nom-de-plume "Thistle."

Throughout his life and in innumerable ways, Henry Booth strove unservingly to further the aims and develop of the institutions that his parents founded at Cranbrook. "My main function in life is to keep Cranbrook a reasonable facsimile of what it used to be, to preserve its beauties and uniqueness," he once was quoted as saying. When death came, he was in the process of bequeathing Thornlea to Cranbrook for use as an intellectual center for the Community.
